

Sugar Glider Wellness Chart

Week: _____ April 1 to April 7 2003 _____

Cage Number: _____ 15 _____

Occupant: Roland											OOP Date: 3-7-2000
Status	Appetite							Activity Level							Nail Trim	Hydration	Eyes	Nose	Coat	Stool	Weight
N	4	4	4	5	2	3	2	3	3	4	5	2	2	2	Y	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	127 g
Comments:
Roland is doing really well this week. His activity level and appetite dropped after his neutering this week. We hope he will be feeling better soon! He has a follow-up scheduled with the vet on April 12.

Occupant:											OOP Date:
Status	Appetite							Activity Level							Nail Trim	Hydration	Eyes	Nose	Coat	Stool	Weight
G L N															Y N
Comments:

Occupant:											OOP Date:
Status	Appetite							Activity Level							Nail Trim	Hydration	Eyes	Nose	Coat	Stool	Weight
G L N															Y N
Comments:

Occupant:											OOP Date:
Status	Appetite							Activity Level							Nail Trim	Hydration	Eyes	Nose	Coat	Stool	Weight
G L N															Y N
Comments:

Key:

Status:

G=Gestating

L=Lactating

N=Normal

Appetite:

1=Poor

2=Below Average

3=Average

4=Above Average

5=Extremely Large

Activity Level:

1=Lethargic

2=Low

3=Average

4=Very Active

5=Overly Active

Hydration Check:

Check weekly for tenting

Eyes:

Check weekly that they are bright, alert and responsive. Report any cloudiness or sunken eyes.

Ears

Check weekly that they are clear of wax, lesions. Report wax, lesions, dry appearance. Ears should spring back into place.

Nose and Membranes:

Should be pink and moist. Report any irregularities.

Coat:

Coat should be smooth and shiny. Report any wetness, stickiness, yellowish tint, bald spots, thinning.

Stool:

Weekly check of fecal matter to insure that it is well-formed.